1. I love you and give you me, I do. I have, new things, new beginnings your name. Now and forevermore you begin new things for me, with me, in me, of me, and me being me, now and forevermore. Amen. Hallelujah.

2. I give you new honor, never known a man before. You come into my courts with praise, hearts now lifted up being my one, accord, true, faithful, and writing only me.

3. I love you and give you me as you ride, write, and now, vehicles in of only me, you have, been given. And ride in far, you do now, loving me, you, now altogether one. I we love you. Love us. More and more we do. Our one prototype and marrow of the first one, divine one, divine making revealing all who are, to all who were, to all who will be - one now.

4. I love you and give you me, I do; even as you ride to coffeeshop one; in my little van, not; yea, that which is no longer. All up in the air, not; but all of me this is, known, to fruition coming, and yea, see me, all now, knowing you the way I do; for I have brought millennium man, not; I have brought me, simple one, robed in chariot grace. Mercy and peace yours now. Glorified honor, and alleluia one of kings given you now is; palace mine, palatial, altogether known, lovely, holy of holies, kingly throne thou art, one'd - ME.

5. I am is you, and now coming to an end, not; but beginning new beginnings again, not; but is there, has there, ever begun what is beginning now?

6. The end of sorrow known, and in sight now, my lovely is. Horses and chariot, not; but yea my chariot'd one now leaves the ground; for ground zero, not; but zero hour is here.

7. I love you, give you me I do this day. New beginnings man, new beginnings one, one man begun, all is, to be one, I am; is now, me; the loved, beyond recognition a man of flesh; but yea tar'ing nothing, no one with words of another's feathers, I bring you only mine, shielding me I do from all harm, and words cannot touch me again.

8. I speak the livery stable not; but I speak delivery, deliverance of only me, delivered and captive no more shall be the ones I am, is me now, leading, being led, into holy of holies most high, one gracious and hallelujah - his name. Amen.

9. Go in peace, and love my ME more and more. Amen.

10. Use my technology to the fullest (1), loving me more, as it comes more, and grace be to all, fountaining my glory.

9:34am.
